

May the richness of life join you in this sacred Central Sun that lives and shines now in the center of the Universe known as you.

May that Central Sun that shines, not only in the center of the Multiverse, but in the center of your Being, as you microcosmically take your place and take the role of emanating out that Light as Sun to those around you.

May that Light, that Vastness, that Allness, that now lives solidly, solidly in your core, may it fill you, and from this moment forth, your mind, thoughts, vision, wisdom and knowing, and may it fill those around you who are blessed by the radiance of your Sun, with, fill you and them with, the purest, clearest, most radiant, most love filled Light possible.

So that from this day henceforth you take your place as Wisdom Holder, as Wise Sage, as Ancient Leader, and as Powerful Servant, in this sacred three dimensional space.

Thank you.
