

Manifesting the Mystic Christ Within™

Bonus 30-min. Meditation into Christ Consciousness (Dec. 5)

[0:00:00]

Michelle: Hello, everyone. This is Michelle, your host for Manifesting the Mystic Christ Within Advanced Immersion. So happy to have you join us today for our special bonus call, the Meditation into Christ Consciousness with Bill. So not too many logistics for this one, just to relax and be present and Bill will take it from there. So welcome, Bill.

Bill: Thank you so much, Michelle. Hello, everyone. It is just a joy to be together with you again. When the Shift Network first asked me if I would be willing to do this sort of extra bonus 30-minute meditation, as you can imagine, it took no thought at all on my part. I jumped right into it and I thought, well, how perfect and especially how perfect for this to happen about halfway into our precious seven months together.

So I just want to invite all of you, as Michelle just did, to just sit back. This is a beautiful half hour time of just letting the mystic Christ, the mystic Christ that we are and the mystic Christ that is infinitely devoted to us, letting that mystic Christ just fill us, bless us. And as the title of this says, just lead us, guide us, invite us, just move us into a deeper, deeper, deeper space of what we're calling Christ consciousness, Christ awareness but really of Christ embodiment because we embody the Christ.

So I'm going to bypass our usual hello greeting to each other just because I'm inviting us to stay in just a special, special space. It's a beautiful meditative space. It's a quiet space. And I do want to mention that for those of you who are joining us later not on the live call and, I believe, for this evening, there will be a number of those, this experience will be just as powerful, just as transformational, just as meaningful, just as touching, just as loving for you even though you're not a part of the live aspect of it.

And that, to me, is the beauty of the Christ. That's the beauty of the whole magnificence of spirit that it can use anything or it can use technology to compress past, present and future in whatever way just serves each of us. So please know, for this half hour or so time, the Christ is serving you. The world is serving you. Infinity, divinity, grace is serving you.

You are that important. You are that central. And I'll just mention that, of course, we're not here this evening for any content or not here for any teaching. We're simply here to let go. Just let go. Just let go and allow the mystic Christ, the mystic Christ that lives in us, the mystic Christ that is not just our root system, our source, our heart, our soul, but the mystic Christ that is all that we are, to sit back and allow that mystic Christ to just unleash divine blessings, to just pour into us divine love, to just flood us with any gift that is imaginable, but more than that, is just perfect, just right, especially at this very moment of your life.

And I know a number of you just in the last few days have written me about some things that you're going through. And I want you to know that this special time this evening, even if the blessing is not a direct response to what you're going through, it places within you whatever it is you need to be super powerful, to be in the fullness of the Christ that you are in relation to those elements of your life.

So just as we start, let's just all recall that throughout human history, the divine, the amazing divine source created Christ and brought them into the world at various points because people, our precious human family, people need divine gifts.

They need something to connect them or reconnect them with their infinite source. And as Christs, you and I, as Christs such as we are, we carry those gifts within us. So we come together on this precious beautiful Tuesday so that the divine can bless us, the Christ, anew and serve within us those gifts awakened in power, activate those gifts.

And especially activate them so that they, those gifts that are here for others, can and will touch us. So sit back, relax. Don't allow yourself to work at anything for this precious time. Just know that you have been invited to the sacred sanctuary of the divine, to the holy heart of the Christ. And that you, right now, are being held sacredly, beautifully, elegantly, sweetly in that sacred setting, in that holy of holies of the divine and especially in this beautiful exquisite Christ heart, the heart of the Christ.

As you let go, as much as is possible, please just experience permission -- permission from every facet of your being to, from you, to that Christ, a permission that says, "Yes, you are me. Do whatever with me," is important right now. And so for the time ahead, I, your friend, Bill, who loves you, who just actually adores you and who treasures you, not just respects you but treasures you as the Christ that you are, I'm going to become, for this moment in time, the voice of the Christ that we are, the Christ that you are, the Christ that is, the single Christ, the united Christ, and the individualized Christ that we are.

And I'm just going to let that Christ speak whatever words are here, words that may be inspiring, but mostly, I think, words that are touching. The Christ wants to touch you anew now. So let go and let go and let go and let go. I, the Christ, am here. I'm in your body now. Yes, not just in your soul, not just in your higher self, not just in your light field. I'm in your body. As much as possible, notice me there.

In whatever way is your style of noticing, of seeing, of knowing, of hearing, notice me because my intent in this precious, precious time is simply to occupy more space in your body, deeper space in your body. And, yes, I know it's so often that it's in the human body that we store our shame, that we store our fear, that we store our guilt or our impatience or our seeming problem.

And that's why I, the Christ, the Christ as well as the Christ that you are, that's why I am dedicated to living in your body, living right in the middle of that seeming problem, that issue, that pain, that shame, that whatever it is or whatever it might be. Wherever it lives in your body, I'm here and I'm not ashamed of anybody's shame.

I'm not afraid of anybody's fear. I'm not turned off by or disrespectful of anyone's pain. I'm not ignorant of, not in denial of anybody's difficulty, anybody's feelings of smallness or separateness. I'm embracing whatever is in your body, whatever is stored there, whatever is dormant there, whatever, even if it speaks with a bare whisper, is irritating you there or holding you in a space that doesn't feel free there.

Yes, I'm not denying. I'm not ignoring. I'm loving that. I'm loving everything in you that has ever reached out for love, has ever felt a need or had a need. I, the Christ, am the source that consciously or subconsciously you've been reaching out for. To love you like that deep, deep human place where you felt yourself perhaps not feeling like the Christ. That's where I am now. Can you sense me there? Know me there? Intuit me there? Perhaps feel me there?

Can you let me be there totally? Let me be the Christ, the Christ who loves you totally. Can you let me love you now there in the core, in the depths of your humanness? Can you allow me to reside in the deepest darkest space of your existence? And let my truth feel your truth there in that deep reservoir, deep resonating even empty space of your being. Can you let me fill you with the truth that you, even in this deepest darkest space of your being, are unbelievably, gorgeously deserving of not just my love but the greatest outpouring of my love?

Can you take in that truth of my loving devotion to you there? Not just in good part, your acceptable part, your socially okay parts but in these deep, deep, deep spaces? Even in the deep spaces where you don't even know yourself, I'm there. I'm there now. I'm there always. I'm asking you let me be here, let me take over, let me love you without condition, without limit, without boundaries, without judgment, without anything except total absolute adoration.

For you know that as I adore you, as the full Christ that I am and that you are, whatever shame, whatever darkness, whatever pain is there, dissolves, dissolves, dissolves in the face of, in the presence of, in the spirit and light of my love.

Nothing in you has any choice but to melt into love, to become love and, yes, become the Christ. That is the miracle of this moment. That is the gift of this Christ. Because I as the Christ know something. And I know something about you. I know that even though you walk through the illusion of pain or suffering or sense of separation or sense of disconnectedness or disempowerment -- and note my words -- even though you walk through that illusion, I see and know the truth of you -- beautiful, remarkable, exquisite, christed creation.

I am really proud of you. I love you everywhere in your being down to the bone marrow of your most deep unknown self, down to the seemingly dirty earthiness of your being as well as the amazing light and lighted-ness of yourself. You in my eyes are the most exquisite creation in your world. You, in my heart, are the most dynamic, amazing, miraculous, miracle-filled presence on the planet of your life.

You, in my everything, are my everything. Can you hear, open to, accept, drink in, absorb, note into the truth of this? I intend in these precious moments to so fill you from the bottom of the barrel of your being and especially in your body but everywhere else also with the pure powerful penetrating transforming, healing, nurturing, opening, awakening love of the Christ that I am and the Christ that you are and the Christ that we are.

Hear the words of love, unconditional love, divine love, all embodied in the Christ; that we, you and I, now are together embodied in the Christ; that we, partners, we unified beings, are together. For the Christ love is many times more powerful than many other versions or styles or energies of love. On this very day, this day of our meditating, on and being led into the deeper, deeper wonder of the mystic Christ, it is love, my love, your love, our mystic Christ love that is the magic wand, that is the light saber, that is the miracle touch that touches you wherever, wherever, wherever you need to be touched.

Right now, I'm here. Notice where you're being touched. Notice the gift of endless divine Christ love. Yes, we talk about a beautiful deserving wondrous you are, but I never need to talk about it because I know it. I see it as the singular truth of you and with no work at all on my part, my love now, now, goes into you, to your heights and to your depths, out into your breath into the world around you, into the earth under you, into every organ, every skin, every element of your nervous system, your electromagnetic, electrochemical being.

I, with my great, great, great, great love of you, for you, give you that love now with the magic touch, the magic touch of the Christ and we have come together to be touched by this magic love, to drink in this miraculous power of Christ love, to open to and say yes to the authority of the love that is the Christ to -- and notice this right now -- to touch you there, there in that place, in that space, even in that non space.

And in the touch, just in the touch, to awaken -- to awaken you, to awaken a facet of you that perhaps has been napping, to awaken a gift in you that has perhaps been only half used, to awaken a power in you that has just been itching to be sent on to the field, to play in the game of your life, to awaken the beautiful Christ, the elegant Christ, the wondrous Christ, the loving Christ, the sensitive feeling, caring Christ, the powerful remarkable giant Christ that you are.

In all of that or any of that, being awakened by that simple, simple, simple touch of the Christ, now that touch called love -- love. Just let the word and the vibration of the word and the spirit of the world love, love, just move through your body through your nervous system, through your glandular system, through your depth and your height and your breadth, through your energy.

Love -- amazing love, love of the mystic Christ, the love that creates miracles, the love that in its very, very soft touch can move mountains and bring the dead to life can create a state of enlightenment or awakening, can heal the deepest and most darkest dark of pain, can do literally anything within us.

That love, that love of the Christ is touching you both now and if you say yes to the invitation and touching you in a way that shall remain and remain and remain through the night, into the morning, into tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow evening. And through that night and the next day and the next day, for as long as anything in you is still hungry for that touch, still needful of that love, still open to drinking in the gift of love.

Love, love. Can you still experience the spirit of that precious word? For the mystic Christ has just filled us with love. And not just any love but love with the Christ touch, love with some mystic Christ power, love with the divinely inspired Christ magnetism, love with the grace-filled quality of magic, love with infinity's endless wonder. Love, pure mystic Christ love.

And as that love, that amazing special carefully orchestrated beautifully designed mystic Christ love, if that is not just touching you as is in you, it is here to stay. And as that love stays, it is a fresh new root system for the mystic Christ that is you. Through the beautiful cooperation of your body, through the willingness and permission, even an expressed from and by your body, the mystic Christ has downloaded itself anew in a special way with love, pure exquisite, divine christed love as its feet stepping into you, as its hands embracing you, as its lips caressing and kissing you, as its power making love to you.

And with that love comes the Christ in a new way, in a special way, in a beautiful, beautiful way. And so, I, the Christ, and the voice of the Christ, say to you -- but now I say it from the very core of your being -- I love you totally, unconditionally, without reserve.

You can do nothing to push away my love, to lessen my devotion, to soil my adoration of you. My love is an integral, definitive, grounded part of you and because my love is that, so now am I.

I, the Christ, as we complete this precious, precious time together, let my voice begin to end its external expression while my presence and especially my love remain now and forever with you. As we all hang up the phone in a minute, let us, if possible, just sit for another minute or maybe a few minutes or maybe longer, whatever feels right and whatever your schedule can manage, and just be this amazing love that the Christ, the wondrous mystical Christ that is your truest nature has just stirred, opened, given, dedicated and brought alive within you.

It is the gift of this moment, a gift just for you because you matter. You matter because you deserve. Yes, you deserve. And because you are so lovable. Thank you so very, very much. And just so that we can stay in this space, we won't be saying our verbal goodbye to each other. We can just let our hearts give that embracing loving goodbye until we meet again this coming Tuesday. Thank you so much and, Michelle, I pass this over to you.

Michelle: Thank you, Bill. Goodnight, everyone.
